

my best friend

i was waiting at the door as i saw a black mustang pull up.A dark haired,attractive and tall guy opened the door."kaity"he yelled and i screamed"will"and i ran and jumped on him.He laughed and said"long time no see kait"i laughed and took his hand and led him into my house."want a soda"i yelled from the kitchen to the living room.He sat on the couch and said"no thanks i had a pop in the car"i told him he was like my brother so he can get what he wants at anytime.I sat down on the couch by him and put in a scary movie.It was dark and i told him i would be back.I went upstairs and put on my blue tanktop and thong and shorts.I ran downstairs and saw he took his shirt off and put shorts on.I sat down by him and we shared a blanket and i fell asleep on him.In the middle of the night my hand slid in his shorts by accident and he woke up and i woke up and he looked down and laughed and said"um you like what your feeling."I slid my hand out but he grabbed it and put it back in.He smiled and kissed my lips so pacinetly and then i took my hand out and wrapped them around him.He stood up and i wrapped my legs around his waist and he slid my shorts off and his shorts.He layed me down on the couch and opened my legs.He slid my thong over to the side and put his cock on the outside of my hole.He pushed it in slowly as i mowned and gripped the couch tightley.I organismd and he took it out fast."whats wrong"i said and he said"i cant cum in you if i dont have a condom,you would become pregnant."i told him i was on the pill so he stuck it in and i started making out with him.We were doing that for an hour and i fell asleep with his cock stuck in me still.the next morning we woke up with cum all over the couch and saw that his condom broke.Now im pregnant and today we found out we are having twin girls.
