

Hot MILF

Yesterday afternoon I took an early lunch break from work to meet a 40+ MILF in my neighborhood for a "date". When I arrived, Sara was waiting for me with her see-through sheer white tanktop and her long legs. Sarah is 5'9", three inches taller than me, which really gets me off. Her body is not as hard as a twenty year old but that's not a problem for me. Now that I am in my 40's I prefer women in my age group. Anyway, I instinctively grabbed for her tits. Sara is a 34A- just perfect for me as I love small tits. She responded by grabbing my hard cock through my pants. I swear she was so hot that I nearly spurted. I told her I was afraid I wouldn't last long because she was so hot. Hearing that seemed to really turn her on and she said she would be really flattered if a man came for her that fast. She opened my zipper, releasing my straining cock. She asked me to lie down on the bed. As she stroked me for not more than fifteen seconds, I asked her to please stop because I was going to cum too fast. "Yes, baby, yes!" she screamed as she jerked me harder than anyone I've ever experienced. It couldn't have been more than forty seconds from the start that I exploded a monstrous load all over her hand, arm and top that she was still wearing. Sara said she had never seen a man cum that fast and that she couldn't believe I found her that exciting. "Now it's my turn," she said. Without any further warning, she removed her panties and began rubbing her wet pussy against my chest. Next, she moved up to my mouth and demanded that I service her. It was hard to breathe as she went out of control on my face. I swear she kept it up for ten minutes straight, yelling "I'm cumming" at least five different times. After that Sara moved into a 69 position and began sucking my half-hard cock. The moment it reached an erect state, she climbed on. She bucked like she was riding a horse, screaming all sorts of shit that I couldn't have imagined beforehand. When she removed her top exposing her lovely little tits, I couldn't hold back any further. I shot my load right there in her pussy. "You are a fucking stud!" she said to me over and over. I apologized for cumming so quickly (not more than two minutes from the time she climbed on). Sara told me not to apologize and said she couldn't believe I could cum again that fast. Later she called a friend of hers while I was in the room and bragged how she had turned a "hot guy" on so much that he came twice with hardly any effort. I had to return to work that afternoon but couldn't concentrate all day (or today). Sara is coming over for dinner tonight and if she is anything like she was yesterday, I'm in for the hottest night of my life. I'll let you know what happens later.
