

My Wife Part 2

I wrote last week about my sex life with my hot MILF wife. With that in mind, I'd like to tell the readers about my latest encounter with her. It happened yesterday after I got home from work. When I walked in the door I immediately noticed that Tanya was wearing tight workout pants that showed off her amazing ass as well as a halter top. Even after being with her more than 20 years, I wanted her as bad as I've ever wanted a woman. Tanya said she was sore from her workout and asked if I would give her a "nice massage." She said it would work better if we went to the bedroom. Once there she removed her top, saying that it would just get in the way. Her back was turned to me so I was not able to see her breasts. I knew she was teasing me. She moaned as I kneaded her tight shoulders and back. After about ten minutes she said she was relaxed now. At that, she turned around, exposing her gorgeous tits to me. I gasped and began touching and sucking them. I removed my underwear and she went for my cock which was now at its maximum hardness. As she stroked it, I released a large amount of pre-cum causing my dick to be lubed just as though she had applied oil! She smiled and said "I don't think you're going to last much longer." I told her that I wanted to last a bit longer so I could cum in her pussy. She removed the pressure from my rod and began lightly fondling my balls instead. I reached for her pussy and found it was moist and ready. I lightly touched her clitoral area, and her clit quickly grew erect. She began writhing and moaning as I manipulated her clit and eventually I increased the pressure. She began literally screaming as she bucked up and down. Finally she said she couldn't take it any more and that she wanted my cock. I asked if she was sure and continued to rub her clit. After asking for the third time, she finally said "Stop fucking teasing me. Put your big fucking cock in me NOW!" She spread her long legs, grabbed my throbbing cock and guided it into her wet hole. She grimaced a bit and said "Shit, you're big. How did your cock get so thick?" I eased up and gently probed her with my cock, gradually increasing the pressure until I was fully inside her. "I love your massive fucking cock", she said. Her body excited me like no other and I began thrusting hard. She let out a primal scream, saying "You're going to make me cum." About a minute of continuous screaming told me that she was, in fact, cumming. I couldn't hold back any longer and released a huge wad of cum directly in her pussy. Every man should be so lucky!
